Mr. Hutchinson is the founder, president and CEO of Balla Machree Inc., a leading Management Consulting & IT solutions firm. He has twenty-five years of broad, in-depth experience with technical and managerial achievement in outsourcing, telecommunication networks, operations, IT strategy, project management, process and business re-engineering. Kevin's wealth of experience was gained from working in key roles of responsibility as a consultant for various industry leading organizations, and founded by serving as an executive at The Cooperators Group Limited.

Prior to founding Balla Machree Inc., Kevin was Vice President of Information Technology at The Co-operators Group Ltd., a major Canadian insurance company with over 5000 employees and agents and gross revenue in excess of 4 billion dollars. While serving as Vice President at The Co-operators, Kevin successfully managed resources, services, vendors and infrastructure, assisting The Cooperators in meeting its strategic and economic goals.

Kevin received a B.Sc. in Engineering from University of Guelph and is a registered Professional Engineer of Ontario (P. Eng). His ongoing studies include management training in a variety of areas including the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Boston and the Queens School of Business in Kingston.

Balla Machree Inc. specializes in IT strategic management consulting, contract negotiation & contract management, network design & implementation, program/project management, and project audits & reviews. Some of its major clients include Telus, Konica Minolta, Co-operators General Insurance Company, Canada Post, Purolator, IBM, CGI, Standard Life Assurance and the Government of Canada (PWGSC). Any of the clients of Balla Machree Inc. would be pleased to provide a testimonial, attesting to their satisfaction and to the value of the services they have received.
